To:
The Discretionary Support Commissioner,
Discretionary Support Service Centre,
Antrim Jobs & Benefits Centre,
20 Castle Street,
Antrim,
BT41 4JE.

Thursday, June 29th 2017.

Dear Commissioner,

RE: REVIEW OF YOUR CLAIM ID REF: 37202, DECISION ID: 45713, AND WILLIAM FINNERTY, NATIONAL INSURANCE NUMBER YH615974D:

I would be grateful if you could please look at the decision relating to my claim which is set out in the text of the unsigned letter I have received from your office dated June 9th 2017.

A scanned copy the June 9th 2017 letter in question can be viewed at the following www location:
<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/AntrimJobsAndBenefitsOffice/9June2017/Letter.htm>

In connection with the above request, I would appreciate it if you could please take account of the comments of mine set out under 1 to 6 below, which all relate to the letter dated June 9th 2017 at the www address directly above.

1) As the June 9th 2017 unsigned letter to me contains no definite mention of the letter I sent to your office through the registered post on June 7th 2017, I have no way of knowing if the person in your office who sent me the June 9th 2017 letter was aware of the full contents of my June 7th 2017 letter, or not. That being so, please know that I have placed a scanned copy of my June 7th 2017 to your office, together with scanned copies of the associated Royal Mail receipt, and the Royal Mail "Proof of Delivery" note, at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/AntrimJobsAndBenefitsOffice/7June2017/RegisteredLetter.htm#ScannedCopy>

2) When I decided to come to Northern Ireland in July 2015, I came with thoughts of Article 18 ("Right to asylum") of the THE CHARTER OF THE FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS OF THE EUROPEAN UNION in mind; and, the hope that I would only need asylum (as in "a safe harbour") in Northern Ireland for a period of a few weeks, or a few months at most. It was not my intention to stay in Northern Ireland for any longer than that, and it is still my intention, as it has been throughout the whole period of the past two years almost of "forced exile" (as I see it) in Northern Ireland, to return to the Republic of Ireland as soon as it seems safe for me to do so.

However, the warrant for my arrest which I understand was issued on July 8th 2015, remains extant as far as I know, as it has been (I believe) throughout the entire period from July 8th 2015 up to the present time.

The extant warrant for my arrest in the Republic of Ireland relates to completely false allegations that I had committed crime in the Republic of Ireland; and, I fled to Northern Ireland, in haste, in early July 2015, for the purposes of a) trying to avoid being corruptly criminalised, fined, and possibly imprisoned in the Republic of Ireland, through the use of a "Trial by Judge (i.e. NON JURY)", or, "Kangaroo Court" arrangement as I see it, and, b) finding legal representation in Northern Ireland of the kind which supports the set of principles stated in the text of Article 47 of THE CHARTER OF THE FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS OF THE EUROPEAN UNION, which reads as follows:.

"Right to an effective remedy and to a fair trial

Everyone whose rights and freedoms guaranteed by the law of the Union are violated has the right to an effective remedy before a tribunal in compliance with the conditions laid down in this Article.

Everyone is entitled to a fair and public hearing within a reasonable time by an independent and impartial tribunal previously established by law. Everyone shall have the possibility of being advised, defended and represented.

Legal aid shall be made available to those who lack sufficient resources in so far as such aid is necessary to ensure effective access to justice."

The full text (of the English language version) of THE CHARTER OF THE FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS OF THE EUROPEAN UNION can be viewed at the following www location:

<http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:12012P/TXT&from=EN>

3) To date, and despite my very best efforts to find legal representation in Northern Ireland, of the kind which supports Article 18 and Article 47 of THE CHARTER OF THE FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS OF THE EUROPEAN UNION, I still have not managed to locate any; and, consequently I still feel I cannot sensibly return to the Republic of Ireland: for fear of being corruptly criminalised, fined, and possibly imprisoned. However, my efforts to find the kind of legal representation I am seeking, which I, as a full citizen of the European Union continue to believe I have a right to in law, are ongoing. When and if I manage to find such legal representation, it continues to be my intention, as it has been throughout the entire duration of my present stay in Northern Ireland, to then straight away set about making arrangements to return to the Republic of Ireland. It is for this reason I have made no attempt to sell my home in the Republic of Ireland, which seems to be one of the two main reasons my application for Discretionary Support has been turned down: as stated on Page three of the letter from your office dated June 9th 2017, which I have highlighted on the scanned copy of it that I have placed at the following www location:

http://www.humanrightsireland.com/AntrimJobsAndBenefitsOffice/9June2017/Letter.htm#Page_3

4) Correctly or otherwise, I have long believed that the main reason for the creation and sustenance of the extant warrant for my arrest in the Republic of Ireland referred to at 2) above, and the main reason I am finding literally impossible (so far) to find legal representation which fully supports the "Article 18 / Article 47" principles referred to above -- either in the Republic of Ireland jurisdiction, or in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland jurisdiction -- are in very large part a function of the judicial corruption I have referred to in my email to Northern Ireland First Minister Arlene Foster LL.B., MLA dated June 16th 2017, which I copied to your office. In case that for any reason you might not be aware of the email in question, please note that there is an unedited Gmail PDF copy of it at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/FirstMinisterArleneFosterMLA/16June2017/Gmail.pdf>

Please find some samples of evidence, of the kinds of wide-ranging forms of Republic of Ireland "judicial corruption" (as I see it) in question, in addition to evidence of my long-standing, and ongoing, personal efforts for trying to remedy the "judicial corruption problem" in the Republic of Ireland, in the following set of Google listings:

5) As as I have truthfully stated in Section 7 of the registered letter I sent to your office on May 27th 2017, I owe a total of Euros 80,000 to my brother (Gerald Finnerty), and my half-sister (Marjorie Dolan), who are both domiciled in the Republic of Ireland. However, it is stated on Page 3 of the letter dated June 9th 2017 from your office, referred to under 3) above, that "the customer's debt at the time of review is confirmed as being £0.00". For me, this statement that I have zero debt, which seems to be the second of the two main reasons for the turning down of my application for Discretionary Support, represents a huge error on the part of the person who is responsible for making this statement..

In case that for some reason you might not be aware of my May 27th 2017 registered letter to your office, please know that there is a scanned copy of it, together with scanned copies of the associated Royal Mail receipt, and the Royal Mail "Proof of Delivery" note at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/AntrimJobsAndBenefitsOffice/27May2017/RegisteredLetter.htm>

6) With reference to the "As such I do not consider the customer to be in an extreme, exceptional, crisis situation which presents a significant risk to his health and safety" statement at the bottom of Page 3 of the letter dated June 9th 2017 from your office, which I have also highlighted in the scanned copy referred to at 3) above, I would be grateful if you would please consider the contents of the two letters at the following www page address: <http://www.humanrightsireland.com/HSE/14February2017/Letter.htm#Reply>

One of the letters at the www address just above was sent by me on February 14th 2017, and the second letter is a reply to my February 14th 2017 letter, dated February 20th 2017, from Craigavon Hospital Consultant Mr AJ Glacken (Urologist), dated February 20th 2017, which contains the statement that "The level of PSA (Prostate cancer indicator) found in January 2016 is most concerning and requires further investigation". I feel I should point out, for the purpose of enabling you to consider the matter, that the www address for this "letter information" appears at the very top of Page 4 of the letter I sent to your office through the registered post on June 7th 2017, just under the heading "PTSD" RELATED" LETTER FROM CRAIGAVON HOSPITAL CONSULTANT MR ANTHONY CLACKIN MD FRCSI. Scanned copies of my June 7th 2017 letter, together with scanned copies of the associated Royal receipt, and the associated Royal Mail "Proof of Delivery" note, can be viewed at the following www page address: <http://www.humanrightsireland.com/AntrimJobsAndBenefitsOffice/7June2017/RegisteredLetter.htm#Page4>

I look forward to hearing from after you have considered the the matters referred to above.

Finally, I would like to take this opportunity to make it clear to all concerned that I feel very grateful for the help I have received, from a wide variety of sources, since coming to Northern Ireland in July 2015; which I think of -- and consistantly view -- as a very considerable and worthwhile amount of help.

Yours faithfully,

William Finnerty.
