Dear Dr. Mullan,

RE: FOLLOW-UP TO REGISTERED LETTER DELIVERED 3 NOVEMBER 2025 — REQUEST FOR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND ACTION

I write in follow-up to my registered letter addressed to you, dated 31 October 2025, and which, according to the Royal Mail Proof of Delivery note, was delivered to your office on 3 November 2025. For your reference, a scanned copy of that Proof of Delivery note, together with a scanned copy of the associated two paged registered letter, are publicly available for viewing at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/AppealToSocialSecurityCommissioner/31October2025/RegisteredLetter.htm>

As of today, I have received no reply, acknowledgement or substantive communication from your office in relation to that letter. The letter sets out serious and enduring issues relating to my entitlement to social security benefits (Pension Credit and Housing Benefit), my long-standing difficulties obtaining professional legal representation, associated medical/mental-health, and human-rights concerns.

Given the gravity of these matters — which involve both potential violations of rights to effective remedy, and procedural justice — I now respectfully request the following:

1. Confirmation of receipt of the 31 March 2025 letter referred to above;
2. A clear, written explanation of whether your office considers the issues raised to be within its remit; if not, an indication of which public authority or body should properly handle them;

3. A proposed timetable for a substantive response — including, at minimum, an acknowledgement within 14 days of the date of this email, and a preliminary decision, or an outline of steps under consideration, within 30 days of the date of this email;
4. Contact details of a case-officer or person responsible for handling correspondence in relation to complaints of this type, so that I may address any further follow-up appropriately;
5. A record of my request entered into your files (or case-management system), with a reference number — so I have confirmation of the matter being “on the record”.

Because of the urgency — especially given the potential consequences for my housing security and welfare — I would appreciate your prompt attention to this matter please.

If I do not receive a response of the kind referred in Point 3 of the above list, I will consider my options for formal complaint or escalation, including referral to the relevant oversight body (e.g. the Northern Ireland Public Services Ombudsman (NIPSO), or other appropriate institution, depending on your advice.

In the interests of transparency and public accountability, a copy of this email will be placed on a publicly accessible www page location similar to that used in the first paragraph above.

I hope that your office will treat this matter seriously, in accordance with your statutory responsibilities, and I thank you in advance for your attention.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.
