Raymond,

Many thanks for contacting me yesterday.

As we discussed, I have now placed a scanned copy of the letter dated March 31st 2021, which I received last Wednesday from the Northern Ireland Courts and Tribunals Service, at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/CourtsAndTribunalsServiceNorthernIreland/31March2021/Letter.htm>

To date, I have not received any reply from O' Muiragh Solicitors in response to my March 26th 2021 email to them, a copy of which (slightly edited) can be viewed at:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/OmuirighSolicitors/26March2021/Gmail.html>

As I mentioned to you yesterday, I feel I cannot sensibly attend the court hearing on May 18th 2021 (referred to above in the March 31st 2021 letter), unless I have gained access to professional legal advice and representation well beforehand.

I greatly appreciate your offer to contact O' Muiragh Solicitors on my behalf for the purpose of finding out if they can advise and represent me, or not?

In the event that O' Muiragh Solicitors are unable to advise and represent me, I would like to be informed about this by email as soon as possible please, so that I can try to find a different law firm that is willing to help me: well before the date of the court hearing on May 18th.

Kind regards,

William.
