Dear Ms Hamill,

RE: June 15th 2016 Radiology X-Ray Department Hospital Appointment

Thank you for the appointment you have arranged for me for Wednesday, June 15th 2016 at 14:20 hours at Daisy Hill Hospital (Newry, Northern Ireland).

Unfortunately, I am still very concerned and very unhappy about my present "legal situation", which I referred to in my email to your Department dated May 12th 2016, a copy of which can be viewed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/DaisyHillHospital/XrayDept/12May2016/Gmail.html>

There has not, as I had hoped might happen, been any improvement regarding my legal situation since the above-mentioned email of May 12th 2016. The core-issue for me has long been that I continue (as I see it) to be unlawfully deprived of the crucially important legal protection referred to in the very simple and straightforward text of Article 47 of the Charter of the Fundamental Rights of the European Union, which, as I understand it, came fully into force in or around December 2009/January 2010. The text of Article 47 is reproduced in the section immediately below.

"CHAPTER VI

JUSTICE

Article 47

Right to an effective remedy and to a fair trial

Everyone whose rights and freedoms guaranteed by the law of the Union are violated has the right to an effective remedy before a tribunal in compliance with the conditions laid down in this Article.

Everyone is entitled to a fair and public hearing within a reasonable time by an independent and impartial tribunal previously established by law. Everyone shall have the possibility of being advised, defended and represented.

Legal aid shall be made available to those who lack sufficient resources in so far as such aid is necessary to ensure effective access to justice."

===

Among the several attempts I have made (to date) to try to find legal representation of the kind which recognises the factual existence of Article 47 of the Charter of the Fundamental Rights of the European Union, is included the letter I sent on November 5th 2015, through the registered post, to local (Newry based) lawyer Louise Moley LL.B, who works for the local law firm of "McGuigan Malone". A scanned copy of the registered letter in question, together with scanned copies of the associated Royal Mail receipt, and the Royal Mail "Proof of Delivery" note, can all be viewed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/McGuiganAndMalone-LawFirm/5November2015/RegisteredLetter.htm>

So far, I have not received any reply from "McGuigan Malone" to the registered letter referred to at the www location immediately above, not even an "acknowledgement of receipt".

Allowing for the above-mentioned difficulties, and for the other related issues referred to at the six www addresses provided below, plus the contents of the "To Whom It May Concern" ELECTRONIC ATTACHMENT referred to at the end of this email, I feel I cannot sensibly present myself for any more medical checks or assessments at the present time.

However, it is my intention to continue on looking for legal representation of the kind which recognises the factual existence of Article 47 of the Charter of the Fundamental Rights of the European Union; and, should I succeed in finding it, it is also my intention to contact you again for the purpose of requesting a replacement appointment for the Wednesday, June 15th 2016 that I have now reluctantly decided to cancel.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty
