Dear Ms Lowery,

Thank you for your letter dated July 22nd.

The main reason I'm writing to you just now is that the July 22nd letter of yours in question contains no mention of the single-page letter I put through the letterbox of the Ormeau Road Surgery at around 4am on the morning of July 22nd, which contained attached printouts of four documents I had discussed with Dr Cheyne GP on the morning of the day before.

In case that for any reason you might be unaware of the single-page letter (and four attachments) in question, please know that a scanned copy of it can be viewed at the following www location:
<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/DrDavidCheyneGP/22July2020/Email.htm>

There is also some additional information relating to the four attachments at the following FACEBOOK www location:

It would be much appreciated if you could please provide me with an acknowledgement of receipt for this email.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.
