"British Prime Minister Theresa May will visit Northern Ireland today as part of a tour of the UK to mark one year

until Brexit."

"British Prime Minister Theresa May will visit Northern Ireland today as part of a tour of the UK to mark one year until Brexit.

"It will see her travel to Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales to speak to families and workers about what Brexit can mean for them.

"In what is being billed as a celebration of the union, Mrs May will be emphasising the positives in a process that is very much still under way.

"The Irish border remains a key difficulty in Brexit with no solutions yet as to how it might be addressed.

"While today is a symbolic milestone, Mrs May will be looking ahead to the key date of October, by which time the EU has said it wants to see a final Brexit deal completed.

"Mrs May will start the day by visiting textile workers at a factory in Ayrshire in Scotland, before travelling to Newcastle to meet a local parent and toddler group.

"She will have lunch with farmers near Belfast before travelling to Barry in south Wales for a round-table discussion with businesses.

"Later, she will have tea in west London with a group of Polish citizens who have made the UK their home.

"Speaking ahead of her trip, Mrs May said: "I am determined that our future will be a bright one. It's a future in which we trade freely with friends and partners across Europe and beyond.

"Having regained control of our laws, our borders and our money, and seized the opportunities provided by Brexit, the UK will thrive as a strong and united country that works for everyone, no matter whether you voted Leave or Remain."

"Mrs May insisted that each of the devolved administrations will see "an increase in their decision-making powers" as a result of the return of responsibilities currently exercised by the EU.

"Her government remains "absolutely committed" to the devolution settlements, she said.

"And she restated her rejection of EU proposals that would effectively create an administrative border down the Irish Sea by keeping Northern Ireland in the customs union.

"As the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom, I have an absolute responsibility to protect the integrity of the United Kingdom as a whole," she said.

"That means ensuring that no new barriers are created within our common domestic market and that the UK is able to meet its international obligations in the future.

"No Prime Minister could leave these things to chance, because they are absolutely crucial to our success as a country in the future."

Ibec concern over Brexit process

"Elsewhere, business group Ibec has written to Mrs May to express its deep concerns at the way the Brexit talks are moving.

"It says a comprehensive EU/UK customs and regulatory alignment is overwhelmingly in the economic interests of both parties, describing British plans for a Free Trade Agreement as a significant deterioration of the current relationship.

"Earlier this month, Mrs May wrote to Ibec to inform them about the free trade agreement she was proposing to the EU as a way of minimising tariffs, quotas and customs checks when Britain leaves.

"Today, Ibec Chief Executive Danny McCoy has replied, saying a free trade agreement would be a significant deterioration of the current relationship and would come with heavy economic costs.

"Instead, he said the UK and EU should aim for a comprehensive customs and regulatory alignment.

"Mr McCoy said Irish business is deeply concerned about the current trajectory of the Brexit negotiations, and is disappointed Mrs May's letter failed to mention Northern Ireland.

"After years of moving forward together, we are now going backwards", he said.
