Paula,

Thank you for your email to me of yesterday (March 21st 2016).

Please note that, at the present time, I am suffering very badly with C-PTSD (Complex-Post Traumatic Stress Disorder) type anxieties and panic-attacks during the day, and flash-backs during the night, which are making it almost impossible for me to get any normal sleep. This problem has been going on for well over a week now (day and night), and I am struggling to contain it, in circumstances whereby I am still not receiving any "counselling" type of medical treatment at all (from any source) for this long-standing C-PTSD condition of mine.

However, I have seen Clinical Psychologist Madeline Fitzpatrick (at Daisy Hill Hospital) on March 14th 2016; but, the formal "Mental Health Assessment", which I have referred to in earlier emails of mine to you, is still not complete; and, assuming I understood her correctly, Madeline Fitzpatrick believes that it will require me to attend at least one more meeting with her (and one of her colleagues), before it can be completed by her Team. As I understand it, the final completion will be in conjunction with the already partly completed "Mental Health Assessment" that Consultant Psychiatrist Dr Mark McCauley (Daisy Hill Hospital) has already compiled on my behalf, following the two appointments I have already had with him, the first of which, as you will know, was sometime late last year (2015), and the second in early January of this year (2016).

Meanwhile, I have been looking up the Internet for new information on the "Post Traumatic Stress Disorder" condition, and the "new" (to me) material I have found in recent days, leaves me in absolutely no doubt whatsoever, that -- FOR SEVERAL YEARS NOW -- I have been suffering very badly from what at least one highly experienced, and apparently very well-informed psychiatrist (of high international repute), is now classifying -- BOTH for CLINICAL and LEGAL purposes (it appears to me) -- as "Chronic Post Traumatic Stress Disorder".

Allowing for the above, and as I trust (and hope) you will understand, I am extremely anxious to avoid getting involved in discussions of the kind you have requested (for 10.30 am) this morning in the Newry Housing Executive Office Building. Incidentally, the anxieties and fears I have regarding such a discussion (this morning) are greatly heightened by the fact that your email to me of yesterday contains no mention at all of the email I sent to you on March 10th 2016.

In case that for any reason you have not received my email to you of March 10th 2016, referred to in the paragraph immediately above, there is a slightly edited version of it -- which contains a few date-error corrections -- at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/Homecare/10March2016/Email.html>

Also, there is an entirely unedited "Gmail PDF" copy of it at:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/Homecare/10March2016/Gmail.pdf>

All things considered, it would be much appreciated by me if you could please suspend all face-to-face meeting discussions you might wish to have with with me until after I am in receipt of "Mental Health Assessment" referred to above, which, as I understand it, is ultimately to be completed by Consultant Psychiatrist Dr Mark McCauley at Daisy Hill Hospital, Newry, Northern Ireland: after he is in receipt of the "second opinion" he has asked for, which is at present being compiled by Clinical Psychologist Madeline Fitzpatrick, and the separate Team she belongs to, which is headed by Daisy Hill Hospital Consultant Dr Elizabeth McMonagle.

Please note though, that in the meantime, I do not anticipate any difficulty (for me) in responding to any email requests for information you might wish to make of me.

Kind regards,

William (Finnerty).
