Gerard,

Many thanks for calling yesterday.

The thought has crossed my mind this morning that the information below, or some parts of it at least, might be useful to you in connection with the matter we discussed towards the end of our meeting.

I realise of course that you may already be aware of large parts of it.

=== === ===

Article 19 (UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS):

"Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers."

=== === ===

Article 11 (CHARTER OF FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS OF THE EUROPEAN UNION):
(Possibly no longer valid in the UK following BREXIT?)

"Freedom of expression and information

1. Everyone has the right to freedom of expression. This right shall include freedom to hold opinions and to receive and impart information and ideas without interference by public authority and regardless of frontiers."

=== === ===

ARTICLE 10 (EUROPEAN CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS):
(Still valid in the UK as far as I know via the "UK Human Rights Act 1998")

"Freedom of expression

1. Everyone has the right to freedom of expression. This right shall include freedom to hold opinions and to receive and impart information and ideas without interference by public authority and regardless of frontiers."
