Judge Geoffery Browne
The Courthouse
District Court Area of Loughrea
County Galway
Republic of Ireland

Dear Judge Browne,

RE: Case Number 2014/233698 to be heard at the April 8th 2015 Sitting at Loughrea Courthouse

I am writing this letter to you because Guard (Republic of Ireland Policeman) Brendan Keys (GA 520) advised myself, my brother (Gerald Finnerty), and my half-sister (Marjorie Dolan), last Sunday (March 29th 2015) that he strongly believed I should do so.

At approximately 5.15 pm last Sunday Guard Keys wedged an envelope containing a summons between the door, and the door-jam, of the front door of my brother's home (where I am at present living): despite a number of requests, made by me from an upstairs window, that he not do so.

Some weeks ago, and as a result of a long string of very worrying reports I received from my brother, over a period of several weeks dating back to late December 2014, I placed two A3 size copies of a "To Whom It May Concern" letter written by Dr Michael McCavert GP on the front door of my brother's home: one covering the door-knocker, and one covering the letterbox.

Guard Keys was accompanied Guard Loretta Cregg (GA 116), and they informed me that they both felt obliged to completely ignore the entire contents of the above mentioned "To Whom It May Concern" letter: because they felt they had to obey the instructions of their senior officers as a matter of top priority.

An electronically scanned copy of the "To Whom It May Concern" letter in question (in PDF Format) can be viewed by clicking on the following www link:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/DrMichaelMcCavertGP/28October2005/Letter.pdf>

Minutes after Guard Keys and Guard Cregg had departed in their car, I went directly to my half-sister's home (where my brother is at present living), and asked them both to take the envelope from the front door, and to return it to Loughrea Garda Station on my behalf.

My brother and half-sister took the envelope back to Loughrea Garda Station at approximately 7 pm last Sunday, and the person on reception arranged for Guard Keys to talk with them. Guard Keys, in effect (as I understand it), advised my brother and my half-sister that their efforts to return the envelope were entirely pointless and futile.

At approximately 11 am last Sunday I went to the Accident and Emergency Unit of Portiuncula Hospital in Ballinasloe, and (at different times throughout the night and early morning) was attended by Nurse Gene Nevin, Dr Obi, and Dr Ajid. (Please note that I'm not sure if the spellings of the names "Obi" and "Ajid" which I am using here are exactly correct, and this is because different members of staff I have spoken to at Portiuncula Hospital, and at the Ballinasloe Day Hospital, have given me different spellings for both of these names.)

carried out a formal psychiatric assessment of me (between the hours of approximately 4 am and 6:30 am) last Monday morning (March 30th 2015).

Shortly before leaving the hospital (at approximately 6.45 am last Monday), Dr Ajid informed me that he considered my situation to be so serious that he had just phoned Consultant Psychiatrist Dr John Eugene MacKen to discuss my situation with him (and stressed the fact that this meant he had to reluctantly wake up Dr MacKen and disturb his night's sleep); that he would straightaway fax his assessment notes to the Ballinasloe Day Hospital; and, that I should expect to be contacted by the Day Hospital sometime later that same day.

I was not contacted by the Day Hospital on Monday, March 30th 2015.

Neither was I contacted by the Day Hospital on Tuesday March 31st 2015.

When I had still not been contacted by Day Hospital by lunchtime yesterday (April 1st 2015), I phoned the Day Hospital and spoke to receptionist Mary Egan, and later to Dr Deirdre Mulryan. Dr Mulryan informed me that the Day Hospital had received the psychiatric assessment notes which Dr Ajid had faxed to them early last Monday morning; but, that she and her team colleagues decided not to contact me regarding them. Although Dr Mulryan did provide me with a reason for not contacting me regarding them, the reason she gave me makes absolutely no sense whatsoever to me. The reason Dr Mulryan gave me (for not contacting me about the notes) was that she and her team-colleagues at the Ballinasloe Day Hospital felt that doing so would constitute an "encroachment" on me.

Guard Keys has advised me (and my brother and half-sister) that "under the rules of the District Court" my brother and half-sister can attend the Court on my behalf, for the purpose of a) explaining to the Court that, because of the poor state of my health I feel I cannot sensibly attend the Court on April 6th 2015; and, b) to deliver a letter from me to the Court on April 8th 2015 which makes reference to my ill health.

Since around 1999, I have used a number of Internet web sites (as diaries of sorts) to keep track of the events which eventually resulted in the set of C-PTSD (Complex-Post Traumatic Stress Disorder) psychological injuries I am at present suffering from, and which are mentioned by Dr Michael McCavert GP in the "To Whom It May Concern" letter referred to above.

Should you wish to peruse the contents of any of the Internet web sites in question, which are listed (with the most recent one at the very top), it is possible to do so using the www addresses provided just below:

I am copying this email to Health Service Executive Consultant Psychiatrist and Acting Clinical Director of East Galway Mental Health Services Dr Margaret O'Grady, and to Dr Mulryan (Ballinasloe Day Hospital), in the hope that they will be able to provide me with a copy of Dr Ajid's psychiatric assessment notes (referred to above), which I would like to include with the letter I intend to give to my brother and half-sister to take to Loughrea District Court on April 8th 2015. I discussed this matter with Dr Mulryan on the telephone this morning, and she informed me she will check with her team-leader, who I understand is Consultant Psychiatrist Ms Feeney, and contact me later today to let me know whether or not I can be provided with a copy of the "psychiatric assessment notes" in question.

I would also like to state that if Dr Ajid wished to provide evidence to the Court in connection with my "psychological assessment" meeting with him in the early hours of last Monday (referred to above), I would be happy for him to do so. I'm stating this here because Dr Ajid seemed very willing and anxious to try his best to help me, and appeared (to me) to be absolutely totally convinced that he and his medical colleagues could actually do so.

My brother and half-sister have both already agreed to attend the Court on my behalf on April 8th 2015, and to deliver to the Court the letter from me which Guard Keys has suggested (referred to above), and which hopefully will include a copy of Dr Ajid's "psychiatric assessment notes" relating to me.

Finally, I would like to point out that a full copy of an email I sent to the Garda Siochana Ombudsman Commission dated August 30th 2014, which I copied to Garda Sergeant Bridget Shelly in response to her request to me for a written statement relating to the alleged offence I have been charged with, can be viewed at the following www page location:
