Presenting complaint

Known pt. to Dr. Ann Jeffers

& Niamh Gralton (psychotherapist).

Last contact in 2009.

Pt. stated that GARDAI delivered a summons today afternoon -

"I am charged with the criminal offence, they claim that I assaulted a GARDAI on July 2014." "I didn't commit any crime & this was manufactured."

"I am not going to court."

"I have been diagnosed with Complex PTSD in 2005."

Pt. stated that he was referred to Day Hospital in Ballinacorney a year ago by his GP, but ~~was~~ "I was afraid to go because of my explosive anger."

"I feel I have to leave the country & seek asylum in some other country."

"If I stay here, I will be criminalised for a crime that was not a crime."

"I came to hospital today to seek help."

"You might help me to get the legal representation I need to defend myself against this criminal charge."

"I feel extremely worried about this summons." "Government blocked my old-age pension since March 2011." "So I have no income." "I am extremely angry about what's happening with me."

"I am trapped in a situation now, the only thing I can do now is to leave

~~6.4.15~~

Republic of Ireland".

"They have been trying to deliver this summons for few weeks".

"I nailed a letter in the door saying that I need support for PTSD".

"The letter also states that any attempt to produce undue pressure on ^{my} his mental state will certainly have a detrimental effect".

"They totally ignored this letter & gave me the summons".

"Date to appear in court - 8th April 2015"

"On July 2014, during conversation with one of the GARDAI, I tried to put a paper with all informations in his pocket, he stated that it's an assault & they charged against me".

"My brother met Dr. Mulroy several times & discussed about the summons".

"I am suffering from bouts of depression, chronic fatigue & explosive anger when I talk to people".
 "Once I heard about the summons in January 2015, everything worsened & I had to think about leaving the country".
 "Sleep ↓. Appetite ↓. ? ideas of worthlessness + Constant anxiety". "I was feeling terrible anger". "fleeing TSH ⊕". "I felt hopeful after sending each mail to politicians & GARDAI & lawyers". "The intensity of flashbacks increased recently". "I was using internet, challenging govt. crime & that's how I kept myself away from suicidal thoughts".

RE: William Finnerty, 62 Main Street, Gortin, BT79 8HH

cf Finnerty's Shop, New Inn, Ballinacree

I have been this man's general practioner for the last five or six months. Over this period I have met William on eight or ten occasions and I have access to some records from the psychiatric hospital about him and I've also had some communications with Gerry Madden Senior Pysciatric Social Worker at Lissan House in Omagh:

As a result of our prolonged conversations I have come to some conclusions and they are as follows:

Firstly that Williams symptoms and behaviours are the result of traumas and stresses over years and these traumas and stresses have come at the hands of individuals and public officals and bodies that he has encountered in his struggles to try to correct environmental wrong doings. He has suffered considerable frustration at not being able to get legal representation and indeed has been refused legal aid as well. On reviewing the depth and range of his symptoms he has got PTSD Complex as a result of all his trauma. I think William's mental health is very much at risk and any attempt to produce undue pressure on his mental state will certainly have a deframental effect.

William has been through enough and needs support and understanding for PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder) and I hope he can be given sympathetic handling by the officals with whom he comes in contact.

Yours sincerely,

Dr McCavert

To:

The Presiding Judge and all Officers of the Loughrea District Court,
The Courthouse,
District Court Area of Loughrea,
County Galway,
Republic of Ireland.

Wednesday, April 8th 2015.

Dear Presiding Judge and all Officers of the Loughrea District Court,

RE: Case Number 2014/233698 to be heard at the April 8th 2015 Sitting at Loughrea Courthouse

I, William Finnerty, would very much appreciate it if the presiding Judge, who I understand will be Judge Geoffrey Browne, and all officers of the Loughrea District Court, would please take note of the set of points I have listed below:

1) I feel I cannot sensibly attend today's Court Hearing because, since around 2002, I have been suffering very badly with Complex Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (C-PTSD), evidence of which can be found in the attached copy of the "To Whom It May Concern" letter dated October 28th 2005 from Dr Michael McCavert GP; and, that attendance at tomorrow's Court Hearing would undoubtedly exacerbate my C-PTSD condition in major ways. This belief is, I understand, shared by Dr Deirdre Mulryan (Medical Doctor and Psychotherapist at Ballinasloe Day Hospital), who my half-sister (Marjorie Dolan) spoke with last Saturday (April 3rd 2015). I also understand that Dr Deirdre Mulryan has written to An Garda Síochána (Republic of Ireland Police) in Loughrea at least once earlier this year regarding my situation.

2) Myself, my brother (Gerald Finnerty), and my half-sister (Marjorie Dolan), have all been informed by Guard (Republic of Ireland Policeman) Brendan Keys (GA 520) that "under the rules of the District Court" my brother can go to the Court on my behalf; explain to the Court (in my absence) the very difficult situation – of long standing – regarding the state of my health; and, to hand in to the Court a letter from me explaining my ill health (which is the main purpose of this letter).

3) This letter is a "follow-up" to my email dated April 2nd 2015 to Judge Geoffrey Brown, an electronic copy of which can be viewed at:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/JudgeJefferyBrowne/2April1915/Email.htm>

"Printed and signed copies" of my email dated April 2nd 2015 to Judge Browne were also sent through the registered post (also on April 2nd 2015) to Judge Geoffrey Browne, and to Minister for Justice and Equality Ms Frances Fitzgerald TD.

Scanned copies (in PDF format) of the two registered letters dated April 2nd 2015 in question can be viewed at the following Internet locations:

4) My extreme fear of attending today's Court Hearing in Loughrea is very closely linked to long-standing, and rapidly growing, concerns connected with the general issue of impunity; and, an example of such publicly expressed concern and unease can be seen in the text of the email I sent to Republic of Ireland Chief Police Commissioner Noírin O'Sullivan on February 22nd 2015, which is on display at the www address immediately below:

Yesterday afternoon (April 7th 2015), my brother telephoned Hogan & Co and spoke with lawyer Brendan Glynn. It is my understanding that Brendan Glynn undertook to either be in Loughrea District Court today himself, or, to arrange for a lawyer colleague of his to be there: for the purpose of providing support for my brother and half-sister.

To Whom It May Concern:

RE: William Finnerty, 62 Main Street, Gortin, BT79 8HH

I have been this man's general practitioner for the last five or six months. Over this period I have met William on eight or ten occasions and I have access to some records from the psychiatric hospital about him and I've also had some communications with Gerry Madden Senior Psychiatric Social Worker at Lissan House in Omagh.

As a result of our prolonged conversations I have come to some conclusions and they are as follows:

Firstly that Williams symptoms and behaviours are the result of traumas and stresses over years and these traumas and stresses have come at the hands of individuals and public officials and bodies that he has encountered in his struggles to try to correct environmental wrong doings. He has suffered considerable frustration at not being able to get legal representation and indeed has been refused legal aid as well. On reviewing the depth and range of his symptoms he has got PTSD Complex as a result of all his trauma. I think William's mental health is very much at risk and any attempt to produce undue pressure on his mental state will certainly have a detrimental effect.

William has been through enough and needs support and understanding for PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder) and I hope he can be given sympathetic handling by the officials with whom he comes in contact.

Yours sincerely,

Dr McCavert

PREAMBLE

The peoples of Europe, in creating an ever closer union among them, are resolved to share a peaceful future based on common values.

Conscious of its spiritual and moral heritage, the Union is founded on the indivisible, universal values of human dignity, freedom, equality and solidarity; it is based on the principles of democracy and the rule of law. It places the individual at the heart of its activities, by establishing the citizenship of the Union and by creating an area of freedom, security and justice.

The Union contributes to the preservation and to the development of these common values while respecting the diversity of the cultures and traditions of the peoples of Europe as well as the national identities of the Member States and the organisation of their public authorities at national, regional and local levels; it seeks to promote balanced and sustainable development and ensures free movement of persons, goods, services and capital, and the freedom of establishment.

To this end, it is necessary to strengthen the protection of fundamental rights in the light of changes in society, social progress and scientific and technological developments by making those rights more visible in a Charter.

This Charter reaffirms, with due regard for the powers and tasks of the Community and the Union and the principle of subsidiarity, the rights as they result, in particular, from the constitutional traditions and international obligations common to the Member States, the Treaty on European Union, the Community Treaties, the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, the Social Charters adopted by the Community and by the Council of Europe and the case-law of the Court of Justice of the European Communities and of the European Court of Human Rights.

Enjoyment of these rights entails responsibilities and duties with regard to other persons, to the human community and to future generations.

The Union therefore recognises the rights, freedoms and principles set out hereafter.

Any citizen of the Union, and any natural or legal person residing or having its registered office in a Member State, has a right of access to European Parliament, Council and Commission documents.

*Article 43Ombudsman

Any citizen of the Union and any natural or legal person residing or having its registered office in a Member State has the right to refer to the Ombudsman of the Union cases of maladministration in the activities of the Community institutions or bodies, with the exception of the Court of Justice and the Court of First Instance acting in their judicial role.

*Article 44Right to petition

Any citizen of the Union and any natural or legal person residing or having its registered office in a Member State has the right to petition the European Parliament.

*Article 45Freedom of movement and of residence

1. Every citizen of the Union has the right to move and reside freely within the territory of the Member States.
2. Freedom of movement and residence may be granted, in accordance with the Treaty establishing the European Community, to nationals of third countries legally resident in the territory of a Member State.

*Article 46Diplomatic and consular protection

Every citizen of the Union shall, in the territory of a third country in which the Member State of which he or she is a national is not represented, be entitled to protection by the diplomatic or consular authorities of any Member State, on the same conditions as the nationals of that Member State.

CHAPTER VI

JUSTICE

Article 47

Right to an effective remedy and to a fair trial

Everyone whose rights and freedoms guaranteed by the law of the Union are violated has the right to an effective remedy before a tribunal in compliance with the conditions laid down in this Article.

Everyone is entitled to a fair and public hearing within a reasonable time by an independent and impartial tribunal previously established by law. Everyone shall have the possibility of being advised, defended and represented.

Legal aid shall be made available to those who lack sufficient resources in so far as such aid is necessary to ensure effective access to justice.

Article 48

Presumption of innocence and right of defence

1. Everyone who has been charged shall be presumed innocent until proved guilty according to law.
2. Respect for the rights of the defence of anyone who has been charged shall be guaranteed.

Article 49

Principles of legality and proportionality of criminal offences and penalties

1. No one shall be held guilty of any criminal offence on account of any act or omission which did not constitute a criminal offence under national law or international law at the time when it was committed. Nor shall a heavier penalty be imposed than that which was applicable at the time the criminal offence was committed. If, subsequent to the commission of a criminal offence, the law provides for a lighter penalty, that penalty shall be applicable.
2. This Article shall not prejudice the trial and punishment of any person for any act or omission which, at the time when it was committed, was criminal according to the general principles recognised by the community of nations.
3. The severity of penalties must not be disproportionate to the criminal offence.

Article 50

Right not to be tried or punished twice in criminal proceedings for the same criminal offence

No one shall be liable to be tried or punished again in criminal proceedings for an offence for which he or she has already been finally acquitted or convicted within the Union in accordance with the law.

CHAPTER VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 51

Scope

1. The provisions of this Charter are addressed to the institutions and bodies of the Union with due regard for the principle of subsidiarity and to the Member States only when they are implementing Union law. They shall therefore respect the rights, observe the principles and promote the application thereof in accordance with their respective powers.
2. This Charter does not establish any new power or task for the Community or the Union, or modify powers and tasks defined by the Treaties.

Article 52

Scope of guaranteed rights

1. Any limitation on the exercise of the rights and freedoms recognised by this Charter must be provided for by law and respect the essence of those rights and freedoms. Subject to the principle of proportionality, limitations may be made only if they are necessary and genuinely meet objectives of general interest recognised by the Union or the need to protect the rights and freedoms of others.
2. Rights recognised by this Charter which are based on the Community Treaties or the Treaty on European Union shall be exercised under the conditions and within the limits defined by those Treaties.
3. In so far as this Charter contains rights which correspond to rights guaranteed by the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, the meaning and scope of those rights shall be the same as those laid down by the said Convention. This provision shall not prevent Union law providing more extensive protection.

Article 53

Level of protection

Nothing in this Charter shall be interpreted as restricting or adversely affecting human rights and fundamental freedoms as recognised, in their respective fields of application, by Union law and international law and by international agreements to which the Union, the Community or all the Member States are party, including the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, and by the Member States' constitutions.

21
W.F.

*Article 54Prohibition of abuse of rights

Nothing in this Charter shall be interpreted as implying any right to engage in any activity or to perform any act aimed at the destruction of any of the rights and freedoms recognised in this Charter or at their limitation to a greater extent than is provided for herein.
