Dear Ms Mulherin,

RE: DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS CLAIRE LOFTUS-v-WILLIAM FINNERTY AT LOUGHREA DISTRICT COURT SITTING HELD ON 8TH JULY 2015

My brother (Gerald Finnerty) related to me, in a telephone conversation I had with him yesterday evening (July 8th 2015), the points I have listed under 1) to 4) below:

1) That, well before yesterday's Sitting of Loughrea District Court began, my half-sister (Marjorie Dolan) handed you a "marked up" and signed printout of the email I sent to you (and several others) on July 4th 2015. An electronic copy of the full July 4th 2015 email in question can be viewed at the following www location: <http://www.humanrightsireland.com/IrishLegalProfessions/4July2015/Email.htm>

Later today, a scanned copy of the actual "marked up" and signed printout of the July 4th 2015 in question, which Marjorie handed to you yesterday morning, will be placed at the following www location: <http://www.humanrightsireland.com/IrishLegalProfessions/4July2015/ScannedCopy.pdf>

2) That when my case was called yesterday, you handed Judge Geoffrey Browne the copy of the "marked up" and signed July 4th 2015 printout that Marjorie had earlier given to you yesterday morning (July 8th 2015).

3) That after looking through the contents of the "marked up" and signed July 4th 2015 printout in question, Judge Geoffrey Browne then asked aloud if I (William Finnerty) was present in the Court; and, that in the absence of Lawyer Brendan Glynn, who I had expected would be in court yesterday to represent all three of us (i.e. myself, my brother Gerald, and my half-sister Marjorie), my brother Gerald informed the Court that I was not present.

4) That, on learning from my brother Gerald that I was not present in the court room, Judge Geoffrey Browne immediately issued a bench warrant for my arrest.

Allowing for the way that lawyer Brendan Glynn has not provided me with the "legal advice" I requested from him in my registered letter to him of May 13th 2015, and for the way that he has not provided me with answers to any of the "six questions" I asked him for answers to in the registered letter I sent to him April 24th 2015, as referred to in my above-mentioned email to you (and Judge Judge Geoffrey Browne) of July 4th 2015, it is now my intention to try and find the legal help I need (from professional lawyers) to challenge the legality of the bench warrant for my arrest which Judge Geoffrey Browne issued yesterday.

There are of course several other extremely serious issues (as I see things) apart from the two I have mentioned in the paragraph immediately above, as referred to in my email to you (and Judge Geoffrey Browne) of July 4th 2015, which I will be asking the professional lawyers I seek help from to take account of as well.

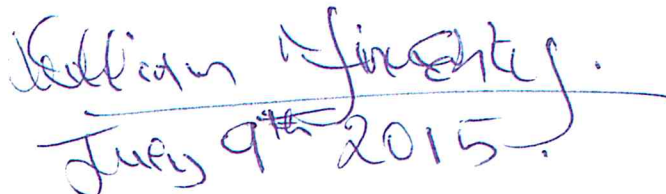

Meanwhile, I would be very grateful to you if you could please correct anything which you might consider to be false or misleading regarding my present understanding of the events that took place at yesterday's Sitting of Loughrea District Court (July 8th 2015), as related to me over the telephone yesterday evening by my brother Gerald (Finnerty), and which I have outlined under points 1 to 4 above.

On account of the warrant that has now been issued for my arrest by Judge Geoffrey Browne, and the fact that lawyer Brendan Glynn appears to me to have decided -- without informing me -- that he does not wish to represent me (which means I now have no professional legal representation of any kind), I have moved out of my brother's home in New Inn, County Galway (because of the fear I have of being arrested at any time if I remained there), and that I have no fixed address at the present time. Consequently, I would be most grateful if you could please inform me of any corrections or alterations you might wish to make regarding the points I have listed above under 1 to 4, by means of the email address I am using for the purpose of sending you this email (i.e. williamfinnertygalway@gmail.com).

I am copying this email to a number of professional lawyers, law-firms, and legal bodies, in the hope that -- allowing for the very strange and very difficult circumstances I now find myself in -- one or more of them might volunteer to provide me with the legal help I need to go about challenging (in a court of law) the legality of the bench warrant for my arrest which Judge Geoffrey Browne issued yesterday: in the manner, and in the circumstances, which I have attempted to very briefly outline above.

Later today, a full copy of this email will be placed at the following www location
<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/LoughreaDistrictCourt/9July2015/Email.htm>

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.

PS: You and other recipients of this email may wish to note that the copy of a closely related (but more up-to-date) email I sent to the United Nations (and others) on July 6th 2015, titled "VIOLATIONS OF THE CHARTER OF FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS OF THE EUROPEAN UNION", can also be viewed at the following www location:
