Subject: "UPDATE" for "crime incident2 reported on November 16th 2015

Dear Police Constable Macklin,

RE: PSNI "E DISTRICT" CRIME REFERENCE NUMBER 918 DATED 16/11/15

I have tried -- without success -- to make direct contact with you on a number of occasions since I last saw you on November 18th 2015 at the Francis Court Hotel, just after I signed the written statement about the "crime incident" referred to above, which I understand you needed in order to let the Housing Executive have the "risk assessment" they have informed me they require from the PSNI (Police Service of Northern Ireland), in order for them to justify paying, or helping to pay, for the emergency accommodation I need at the present time.

As you may know, after two days, the Housing Executive refused to extend the emergency accommodation I had found for myself at the Francis Court Hotel (Newry) on November 16th 2015. I paid for the first night myself (which cost me £35), and the Housing Executive paid for the following two nights, which I understand may have been at the higher rate £45 per night. (It seems I should have been charged £45 for my stay there on November 16th, but due to a clerical error was charged at the lower rate of £35, which management decided "let me off with".)

On learning -- on November 19th 2015 -- that the Housing Executive was unwilling to undertake to pay for any more than two nights, the Francis Court Hotel informed me (in effect) that they could not allow me to stay there any longer.

I then moved to the Canal Court Hotel, where the nightly charge is £80 per night. So far, I have paid over £1,000 to the Canal Court, and this sum is, at the present time, being added to at the rate of £80 per night.

As these hotel charges of £80 per night are entirely unsustainable (from my viewpoint) I trust you will understand that I am growing extremely worried about my present overall situation.

I have checked with a receptionist at the Canal Court Hotel, and she has assured me that it would be entirely acceptable (to the Canal Court Management) for me to meet you in the reception area of the hotel for the purpose of you providing me with an UPDATE on the "crime incident" (PSNI "E DISTRICT" CRIME REFERENCE NUMBER 918 DATED 16/11/15) which I reported to the PSNI on November 16th 2015: in circumstances whereby I understand you cannot send me the "update" in question by email.

I could see you anytime -- after 3 pm -- this afternoon in the reception area of the Canal Court Hotel.

If you cannot call to the Canal Court Hotel this afternoon, it would be much appreciated if you could please provide me with a time and a date when you could call to the hotel to see me.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.
