Niall,

Thanks for your email of this morning. Until I received it, I knew nothing of your email to me of December 8th.

As I have tried to point out again -- to all concerned -- in my email of this morning, it's finding the legal and medical I need that is by far the most important thing to me: as it has been all along really, since I first called at your office seeking help with accommodation in July 2015.

If I could find the legal and medical help I feel so desperately in need of, I don't think it would matter very much to me where I lived: and that includes the Lurgan and Portadown areas.

The Newry area now appears to me to be completely out of the question, because of what has happened to me with McGuigan's law firm (who have threatened to sue me), and with Daisy Hill Hospital and Meadowlands Surgery: who appear (to me) to be still COMPLETELY IGNORING the entire contents of the two registered letters I have sent to them several months ago, and which the Royal Mail appear to have successfully delivered to Meadowlands Surgery through the use of their "Special Delivery (before 1 pm on the next working day) Service".

My fear is, and it's now developed into a HUGE FEAR, that no matter where I move to, I'm going to end up in the same situation (more or less) as I now find myself in here in Newry, as far as the legal and medical help I need is concerned, and which is nothing short of PURE MENTAL TORTURE for me, for most of the time.

Changing the subject slightly, and regarding my need to specify "two areas of choice", it would be much appreciated if you could please let me know if the two areas I choose could be anywhere in Northern Ireland?

If you reply to me by email, I would also be very grateful if you could please send your reply to both my Gmail and my Yahoo addresses, which are:
