Niall,

RE: "two areas of choice", with Belfast City Centre now probably the best choice for me?

Thank you for your email of December 14th 2016, an unedited "Gmail PDF" copy of which I have placed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/NorthernIrelandHousingExecutive/14December2016/Gmail.pdf>

Thank you also for keeping me on the list for "sheltered accommodation", on the understanding that I am prepared to seriously consider moving to "anywhere in Ireland" for the purpose of making it as easy as possible for you and your colleagues to find suitable accommodation for me.

Taking into account the contents of your December 14th 2016 email at the above www location, and the discussion we had when you and Michael Keenan called to see me on December 13th 2016, it is now my understanding that the Housing Executive CANNOT provide me with "sheltered accommodation" of the "complex needs" kind that would help to overcome the "complex difficulties" (legal and medical) I have written to you about in my email of December 5th 2016. Further information relating to the "complex difficulties" in question can be viewed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/NorthernIrelandHousingExecutive/5December2016/Gmail.html#ComplexDifficulties>

Re: Contacting The Law Society of Northern Ireland

In connection with the suggestion in your December 14th 2016 email that I contact the Law Society of Northern Ireland for help, please know that I have already done so; and, that evidence of this can be viewed in the scanned copy of my registered letter to the NI Law Society at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/NorthernIrelandLawSociety/31October2016/RegisteredLetter.htm>

You may wish to note that there is also a scanned copy of an "acknowledgement of receipt" from Ms Mary Bradley, Executive Officer at the Client Complaints Department of the Northern Ireland Law Society, at the www location immediately above; and, that in addition, there is a closely related scanned copy of a letter dated September 20th 2016 from Mr Sear Kerr, Private Secretary to Northern Ireland Minister For Finance Máirtín Ó Muilleoir MLA.

Re: Contacting The Northern Ireland Department of Health

In connection with the suggestion in your December 14th 2016 email that I contact the Northern Ireland Department of Health, please know that earlier this year I have copied a number of emails containing information relating to the difficulties I am experiencing with finding the medical help I need, to Northern Ireland Minister for Health Michelle O'Neill MLA. Additional information relating to these efforts of mine can be found in the Internet Search Engine Listing at the www address provided immediately below:

Northern Ireland Minister for Health Michelle O'Neill MLA, William Finnerty:
https://www.google.ie/?gws\_rd=ssl#q=Northern+Ireland+Minister+for+Health+Michelle+O%27Neill+MLA%2C+William+Finnerty

I copied the emails to Ms O'Neill in the hope that she, or one of her support staff perhaps, might contact me with an offer of help of some kind. However, I have not, to date, heard anything at all from anybody at the Northern Ireland Department of Health in response to the emails I have sent to Minister for Health Michelle O'Neill MLA.

With reference to the letter I sent through the registered post to your colleague, Newry Area Housing Executive Manager Loma Wilson, on December 12th 2016, which was written at a time when I did NOT know that the Housing Executive was unable to provide me with the "complex needs" type of help that I had been hoping for the past several months it would, I feel it might now be worth reminding you that, on account of its high population, by far the highest of all the cities of Northern Ireland I understand, central Belfast might be the best place for me to move to; and, that this is because of my need for "group therapy" that focuses on helping people like myself who are suffering from Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, which in my particular is chronic. As I have related to you and Michael Keenan when you called to see me on August 9th 2016, to inform me that you needed me to move to a different address, I believe such "group" help, often organised and run by unpaid volunteers who themselves suffer from PTSD, is most likely to be found in densely populated areas such as central Belfast.

A scanned copy of the letter I sent through the registered post to Newry Area Manager Loma Wilson on December 12th 2016 can be viewed at:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/NorthernIrelandHousingExecutive/12December2016/RegisteredLetter.html>

Finally, and in case there might be any doubt about it, please know that I still have not heard anything at all from anybody connected with Meadowlands Surgery (Newry) in response to the contents of two registered letters I sent some months ago to Dr John Radcliffe GP. Scanned copies of the two registered letter in question, dated April 26th 2016 and August 1st 2016, can be viewed at the www locations provided just below:

Registered Letter #1 (April 26th 2016):

Registered Letter #2 (August 1st 2016):

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/MeadowlandsSurgery/1August2016/RegisteredLetter.htm>

Kind regards,

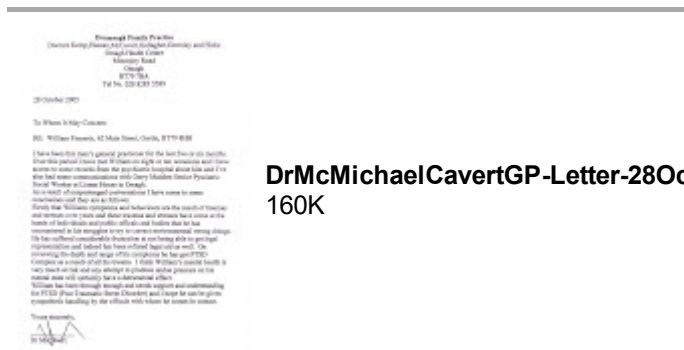

William (Finnerty).
