Dear Mr McLaughlin,

"THE RIGHT TO AN EFFECTIVE REMEDY" (REF: DECEMBER 6TH 2021)

As you may know, I sent a letter to you through the registered post on November 2nd 2021.

To date, I have not received any reply (of any kind) from anybody at the Northern Ireland Law Society to the letter in question. In case that you personally might not have received it for some reason, please know that a scanned copy of it can be viewed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/NorthernIrelandLawSociety/2November2021/RegisteredLetter.htm>

Scanned copies of the associated Royal Mail receipt for the letter, and of the Royal Mail "Proof of Delivery" note, can also be viewed at the above www location. According to the Royal Mail, the letter was successfully delivered on "03-11-2021".

It would be much appreciated if you could please advise me as to whether, or not, the Northern Ireland Law Society can help me to resolve the legal difficulties I have referred to in my November 2nd 2021 letter to you, and which include the particular problem outlined in the following excerpt from the text of my November 2nd 2021 letter to you:

"As you will know, Nelson-Singleton Solicitors are included in the Northern Ireland Law Society's solicitor directory you have referred to in your August 19th 2021 letter to me (referred to above); and, one of the main reasons I am writing to you now is to ask you if it is lawful for Nelson-Singleton Solicitors, and all of the other law firms listed in the Northern Ireland Law Society's solicitor directory, to completely ignore registered letters of mine of the kind I sent to Nelson-Singleton Solicitors on August 2nd 2021: in the way that Nelson-Singleton Solicitors appear to me to have decided to do?"

I feel I should point out that, for the purpose of trying to keep him informed about my growing selection of legal, medical, social, and financial difficulties, and in the hope he might help me to some extent to resolve them, I also sent an almost identical copy of my November 2nd 2021 letter (referrer to above) to UK Prime Minister Boris Johnson MP through the registered post on November 2nd 2021. It is also the case that I have not received any reply of any kind from Mr Johnson, or from any of his MP colleagues and support staff. A scanned copy of my letter to Mr Johnson, together with scanned copies of the associated Royal Mail receipt and "Proof of Delivery" note, can be viewed at: <http://www.humanrightsireland.com/UKPrimeMinisterBorisJohnsonMP/2November2021/RegisteredLetter.htm>

With "Duty of Care" issues in mind, I am hoping to receive a reply from you regarding the fact that despite well over 20 years of continuous effort on my part (i.e. since around the Summer of 1997), I still do not have any direct access to professional legal advice and representation of the kind which recognises and supports human rights law, and constitutional law: in practical and meaningful ways.

Related "Duty of Care" Question:

"Humanity as a whole" still has an enormous amount of "growing up" to do, it would seem?
