Dear Ms McNally,

RE: Your Reference: "App Ref No: 650427", and your letter to me dated August 10th 2016

Thank you for your letter dated August 10th 2016, which I assume is in response to the unexpected visit I received last Wednesday afternoon from Newry-based Northern Ireland Housing Executive Team Leader Niall Fitzpatrick, and his colleague Michael Keenan.

The main purpose of this interim email of mine to you is to point that I feel unable to make progress with the tenancy offer (in Portadown) which you have now provided me with, at the pace which your Office appears to expect of me, as evidenced by the request in your August 10th 2016 letter for what I feel might, in reality, be a "take or leave it" type reply from me (regarding your tenancy offer), before 10 am this coming Monday morning (August 15th 2016).

As I discussed with Niall Fitzpatrick and Michael Keenan last Wednesday afternoon -- at some considerable length, and in some considerable detail -- I have still not managed to find any medical treatment for the chronic Post Traumatic Stress Disorder that I have now been suffering very badly from for an uninterrupted period of several years. Evidence of this can viewed in the copy of the "To Whom It may Concern" letter dated October 28th 2005 written by Dr Michael McCavert GP, an electronic copy of which I am attaching to this email. Also, under the "REQUEST #1" heading, there is additional evidence of my ongoing efforts to try and remedy this particular medical problem of mine in the text of the email I sent on August 4th 2016 to Daisy Hill Hospital (in Newry). A full copy of the email in question can be viewed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/DaisyHillHospital/4August2016/Gmail.html>

As can be seen in the email copy at the www address immediately above, the chronic Post Traumatic Stress Disorder problem referred to is just one of a number of other closely related problems that I am finding it extremely difficult to make any useful progress with at the present time. Not least among the set of difficulties in question is the fact that, to date, I have not received any reply of any kind from anybody at Meadowlands Surgery (Newry) to either of the two registered letters referred to at the following two www locations:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/MeadowlandsSurgery/1August2016/RegisteredLetter.htm>

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/MeadowlandsSurgery/26April2016/RegisteredLetter.htm>

As a consequence of I not hearing anything from anybody at Meadowlands Surgery, I have no way of knowing if any of the three GPs (General Practitioners) working in Meadowlands Surgery are aware of the existence, let alone the contents, of the two registered letters (dated April 26th 2016, and August 1st 2016) referred to at the two www locations provided just above.

It is my intention to write to you again within the coming seven days for the purpose of providing you with a fuller reply to your August 10th 2016 letter to me. I trust this will be acceptable to you; but, if it is not, I would greatly appreciate it if you could please advise me accordingly at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.
