Dear Ms Milligan,

RE: HOUSING EXECUTIVE REVIEW DECISION OF SEPTEMBER 1ST 2016

Thank you for your email to me dated September 1st 2016.

Unfortunately, I am dissatisfied with the review decision that you have related in your email to me dated September 1st 2016, and this is partly because of an email I sent to the Housing Executive on December 11th 2015, which was sent approximately nine months before I received the offer of accommodation contained in the letter from Denise McNally, Housing Executive Area Manager, dated August 10th 2016. I feel I very clearly expressed a preference, in writing, for "sheltered accommodation" to the Northern Ireland Housing Executive in my December 11th 2015 email, a copy of which can be viewed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/NorthernIrelandHousingExecutive/11December2015/Email.html>

It is also partly because I feel that, well before I went to view the "10 Churchill Park, Portadown" accommodation offer on August 26th 2016, I feel I had also very clearly indicated to a number of people connected with the Portadown Northern Ireland Housing Executive that I had a preference for "sheltered accommodation". For example, please see "Section 2" of the message-text of my email dated August 17th 2016, which was primarily addressed to Portadown Housing Executive Area Manager Denise McNally, a copy of which can be viewed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/PortadownHousingExecutive/17August2016/Gmail.html>

Also, in my email to you of August 30th 2016, titled "Request for a review of my case", I made what I feel was very clear reference to the "Section 2)" matter referred to in the paragraph immediately above, as can be seen at the following www page location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/PortadownHousingExecutive/30August2016/Gmail.html#ShelteredAccommodation>

In case that for some reason or another that you might not be aware of it, please know that I also sent a "Printed and Signed" copy of my August 30th 2016 email to you through the Royal Mail "Special Delivery before 1 pm The Following Day" Service, also on August 30th 2016. Scanned copies of the "Special Delivery" letter, together with scanned copies of the associated Royal Mail receipt, and the Royal Mail "Proof of Delivery" note, can be viewed at the following www location:

Although it is the case that, for a number of reasons, I would prefer not to have to use the "County Court" option now available to me to appeal your September 1st 2016 decision, I have nevertheless recently discussed this approach with one of the clerks at the Newry County Court Office.

While stressing that he was not qualified to provide me with legal advice, he did nonetheless very kindly provide me with guidance regarding the practical aspects of making an application for a County Court hearing of a case of the particular kind in question, based on his personal experience of working as court clerk for a considerable number of years. Assuming I understood him correctly, the main points of the guidance I received from this person are as listed under points 1) to 5) below:

- 1) That, for the type of appeal in question, I would need to lodge a properly completed County Court "Appeal Application Form" within 21 days of your September 1st 2016 review decision: even though the letter I received from Housing Executive Area Manager Denise McNally, dated August 10th 2016, makes no mention of this particular time limit (of 21 days);
- 2) That I would need to clearly state the specific "Point of Law" concerned, on my appeal application form. Please know that although the August 10th 2016 letter I received from Housing Executive Area Manager for Portadown Area Denise McNally clearly mentions the "Point of Law" type challenge now open to me, it does not say which "Point of Law". It would be much appreciated if you could please identify the "Point of Law" in question, and inform me as to what it is, on or before before this coming Friday (i.e. September 16th 2016) please;
- 3) That I would be required to pay £150 at the time of making the County Court appeal application, which I assume is a County Court service charge;
- 4) That my chances of success, regarding any County Court action I might decide to initiate in connection with this matter, will almost certainly be severely reduced if I am unable to provide the presiding judge with tangible evidence that I have done all I reasonably could to resolve the problem relating to the September 1st 2016 "review decision"

(referred to above): before I initiate any County Court appeal procedure in connection with it.

5) That, ideally, I should seek legal advice from a professional lawyer before going ahead with the County Court appeal I am now considering.

With regard to point 5) above, it is still the case that I have not managed to find legal representation of the kind I feel I have very badly been in need of for the past several years now, which is legal representation of the kind that recognises, in practical ways, my legal rights as set out in Article 47, and in other sections of the Charter of the Fundamental Rights of the European Union, which I understand came fully into force in December 2009.

Nevertheless, I feel I should also inform you that I have recently received a letter, dated September 5th 2016, from Northern Ireland Justice Minister Claire Sugden MLA, which relates to the ongoing difficulties I am having regarding legal representation. While very helpful in itself (as I see things), the contents of Ms Sugden's letter also suggest (to me at least) that I might later receive some additional help from her Northern Ireland Government colleague, Minister For Finance Máirtín Ó Muilleoir MLA, in connection with my "legal representation" problems. A scanned copy of Ms Sugden's letter to me of September 5th 2016 can be viewed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/NorthernIrelandJusticeMinisterClaireSugdenMLA/5September2016/Reply.htm>

I feel I should also point out that the letter from Minister Sugden at the www location just above, is in response to the letter I sent to her through the registered post on August 24th 2016. A scanned copy of my August 24th 2016 registered letter to Ms Sugden, together with scanned copies of the associated Royal Mail receipt, and the Royal Mail "Proof of Delivery" note, can all be viewed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/NorthernIrelandJusticeMinisterClaireSugdenMLA/24August2016/RegisteredLetter.htm>

Finally, on the matter of my ongoing "legal representation" difficulties, I feel I should again point out that my efforts to remedy this particular problem date back several years, as is evidenced by the www "search engine listing" at the www location immediately below:

Article 47 of the Charter of the Fundamental Rights of the European Union, Human Rights Ireland, William Finnerty:

https://www.google.ie/?gws\_rd=ssl#q=Article+47+of+the+Charter+of+the+Fundamental+Rights+of+the+European+Union%2C+Human+Rights+Ireland%2C+William+Finnerty:

===

In response to your suggestion that I advise the Housing Executive about the kind of "sheltered accommodation" I wish to be considered for, I feel it probably should be of the "complex needs" type I have recently seen mention of at the Northern Ireland Housing Executive www address just below:

http://www.nihe.gov.uk/index/advice/apply\_for\_a\_home/housing\_selection\_scheme/complex\_needs.htm

In addition, I feel it would need to be in an area where I am most likely to be able to find group-therapy meetings for the chronic Post Traumatic Stress Disorder I am suffering from. Further information relating to the group-therapy I feel I need can be viewed at the www page location just below, which contains a copy of the text in "Section 2" of my August 30th 2016 registered letter to you:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/PortadownHousingExecutive/30August2016/Gmail.html#GroupTherapy>

To date, please know that I have still not received any reply of any kind from anybody at Meadowlands Surgery (Newry) to either of the two registered letters referred to at the www location just above, and which were posted on April 26th 2016, and August 1st 2016.

As a consequence of I not hearing anything from anybody at Meadowlands Surgery regarding these two registered letters, referred to just above, I have no way of knowing if any of the three GPs (General Practitioners) working in Meadowlands Surgery are aware of the existence, let alone the contents, of these two registered letters of mine that I have sent to them.

===

Finally, I would like to mention to you again my present need for the "Point of Law" information referred to in Section 2 of the above text.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.

Re: William Wylie-Cavanagh, 42 Main Street, Omagh, BT79 8BB

I have been this day's general practitioner for the last five or six months. During this period I have met William Wylie-Cavanagh at his residence and have spoken to other medical staff at the practice including about him and I have also had some correspondence with Gerry Madden (Senior Psychiatrist) from the Mental Health Unit in Omagh.

In the light of correspondence mentioned I have come to realise that William Wylie-Cavanagh has a history of mental illness and in particular has been involved in the mental health unit in Omagh. I have also been advised that he has been involved in litigation in the past and I have been advised that he has been involved in litigation in the past and I have been advised that he has been involved in litigation in the past.

It is my belief that William Wylie-Cavanagh is a person who is not fit to practice as a general practitioner and I have advised the Health Service of this. I have also advised the Health Service of this and I have advised the Health Service of this.

Yours sincerely,
 Dr Michael McCavert
