 Mr Keelan McGaghran,
 Area Housing Manager
 Radius Housing Association
 38-52 Lisburn Road
 Belfast
 Northern Ireland
 BT9 6AA

Dear Mr McGaghran,

RE: NOTICE OF INTENT TO ENFORCE REPOSSESSION ORDER LODGED BY RADIUS HOUSING ASSOCIATION

I have received a five-page letter dated August 16th 2021 from the Enforcement of Judgements Office at Laganside House, Belfast BT1 3LA, and I have placed a scanned copy of the letter in question at the following www location:
<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/EnforcementOfJudgementsOffice/16August2021/Letter.htm>

In connection with the August 16th 2021 letter from the Enforcement of Judgements Office I wish to make the following points:

1) I have informed Community Mental Health Social Worker Ms Tina Millar (and others) about the letter via an email I sent to Mr Gerard Forrestal of the Welcome Organisation last Sunday (August 22nd), and an unedited copy of it can be viewed at:
<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/GerardForrestal/22August2021/Gmail.pdf>

2) In the email at the www location immediately above, I have expressed the hope that Radius Housing will not make any application to "enforce the judgement" until I personally have direct access to professional legal advice and representation of the kind which recognises and supports human rights law and constitutional law in meaningful and practical ways: as opposed to doing so by mere lip-service.

3) As you will already know perhaps, I sent a letter through the registered post to law-firm Nelson-Singleton Solicitors on August 2nd 2021 for the purpose of seeking professional legal advice and representations relating to the overall set of legal, financial, and medical problems I am now faced with. A scanned copy of the August 2nd 2021 letter in question can be viewed at:
<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/Nelson-SingletonSolicitors-HumanRightsLawFirm-Belfast/2August2021/RegisteredLetter.htm>

To date, I have not received any reply of any kind from anybody at Nelson-Singleton Solicitors to the letter referred to at the www location immediately above. I am very concerned about this, largely because I have had the same, or effectively very similar, responses from almost all of the several lawyers and law firms I have sought help from since Year 2000.

4) In the event that Radius Housing Association is unwilling to delay making a request to "enforce the judgement" until such time as I have access to proper legal advice and representation, it seems to me that the only meaningful option now available to me -- for the purpose of avoiding eviction -- is for me to reluctantly go along "blindly" (as far as professional legal advice is concerned) with the proposal set out in your letter dated June 9th 2021 to Community Mental Health Social Worker Ms Tina Millar, a scanned copy of which can be viewed at:
<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/RadiusHousing/9June2021/ProposalLetter.htm>

Please know that the weekly rent and debt-repayment payments you require, plus my average weekly electricity bills, when subtracted from the only two sources of income I now have (i.e. my old age pension payments and my disability payments), would mean I would be left with approximately just £35 per week to live on.

It is the case that I could manage (with such a low income) for some time to come, thanks to the fact that I still have part of the €116,100 I have borrowed through monthly loans against my home in County Galway from my brother (Gerald Finnerty), and my late half-sister (Marjorie Dolan), which I could use to supplement the £35 with. However, I have long since felt a very strong duty to pay back all of the money I have borrowed from my brother and half-sister as soon as possible. In the case of my half-sister, who passed away last February, information I have received from the law firm in County Galway (Patrick Hogan & Co, Ballinasloe), who are dealing with my half-sister's will, have clearly indicated to me that I could pay the money I owed to her at the time of her death into her estate, which is what I would like to do. Also, in connection with inheritance tax liabilities arising in connection with my half-sister's death, my brother informed me some months ago that he felt he would not be able to provide me with any more monthly loans I have been receiving from him beyond July 7th 2021, which I have fully understood and accepted, and which is what has since happened as a matter of fact.

Unless I can find legal representation which is willing and able to use "The right to an Effective Remedy" referred to in the section immediately below, it seems highly unlikely to me that I will ever be able to repay the €116,100 Euros loans my brother and late half-sister have provided me with.

5) As I have no reason to believe that anybody at the Enforcement of Judgements Office knows anything about the fact that my efforts to find proper legal advice and representation have been continuously "thwarted at every turn" for well over 20 years now, which appears to me to represent a very serious violation of my legal rights under international law relating to Article 8 of the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights (i.e. "The right to an Effective Remedy"). As things stand, from my viewpoint at least, and allowing for the large amount of factual written information I have provided those involved in my particular situation with over a period of well over 20 years now, it appears to me that in connection with the violations of my rights in question, Radius Housing, Babingtons Solicitors (the law firm acting on behalf of Radius Housing), the presiding District Court judge at Laganside Court who made the decisions that he, or she, made relating to my case on May 18th 2021, together with a number of other individuals and public officials and bodies, both in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and in the Republic of Ireland, are behaving in ways which involves complicity. This has long been a source of huge concern for me which I have so far not found any effective remedy for. Nor is there any such remedy in sight that I know of at the present time, which I find very disturbing. It seems to me that those responsible for the violations in question can carry on indefinitely as things stand, and do so with complete impunity.

Some good quality evidence relating to the "thwarted at every turn" legal problem of mine can be viewed in the letter dated December 13th 2005 written on my behalf by Senior Social Worker Mr Gerard Madden to the then Northern Ireland Justice Minister David Hanson MP at:

<http://www.constitutionofireland.com/GerardMadden13December2005/Letter.htm>

Allowing for what I have stated above in this section, I am copying this email to the Officer in Charge at the Enforcement of Judgements Office using an email address which I can only hope might enable me to communicate with the person in question, for the purpose of trying to ensure that he, or she, is aware of what I am inclined to view as a "complicity" problem. The five-page letter I have received from the Enforcement of Judgements Office contains no email address, and Google searches I have made to try to find one have failed to produce any useful results for me.

Please know that the matter of "Adequate reparations" features strongly in "The right to an Effective Remedy", as can be seen in the image below which I am attaching to this email. Without such reparations I feel I will never be able to pay back the money I have borrowed from my brother and half-sister. Also, "The right to legal and other assistance necessary to claim remedies" seems to me to be a crucially important part of Article 8 of the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which is also referred to in the attached image below.

6) Allowing for the above, and for the purpose of trying to avoid eviction, should Radius Housing still feel the need to proceed with the settlement proposal set out in your letter dated June 9th 2021 to Community Mental Health Social Worker Ms Tina Millar (referred to under 4 above), please let me know how you would wish me to proceed regarding the exact payments you would be requiring from me, and the manner in which you would wish me to have them paid to Radius Housing.

Allowing for the fact that I personally still do not have any direct access to professional legal advice and representation, please know that I feel very unsafe about getting involved in conversations of any kind with others relating to the overall set of legal, medical and financial difficulties I am at present struggling with. Consequently, it would be much appreciated if you could please provide me with a signed written reply to this email.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.
