Dear Colin,

Re: Floating Support

Thank you for your email of October 4th 2021, an unedited copy of which has been placed at the following www location:
http://www.humanrightsireland.com/WelcomeOrganisation/14October2021/Gmail.pdf

Please know that, for a number of reasons, I feel I cannot sensibly meet up with you at the present time for the face-to-face type of meeting you seek, and that this is mostly due to the fact that, despite my best efforts, I still do not have any access to professional legal advice and representation of the kind which recognises and supports human rights law in meaningful, practical ways. One of the other reasons relates to the fact that, despite my best efforts, I am still not receiving any proper medical treatment for the Complex-Post Traumatic Stress Disorder I continue to suffer from, and which I was first diagnosed as having by Dr Michael McCavert GP in October 2005.

However, my search for professional legal advice and representation of the kind I feel I need is ongoing. Assuming I succeed in finding it, and that it seems appropriate to do so at the time, I will contact you again for the purpose of arranging the kind of face-to-face meeting you have requested.

Finally, I have only very recently noticed that I accidentally forgot to include you in the "Cc:" recipient list of an email I sent on October 4th 2021 to (among others) a number of senior politicians and lawyers, which included Republic of Ireland Chief Justice Frank Clarke. The email was titled "Conor MacGuill v Mark Kavanagh, Finbar Markey, William Finnerty and Facebook". A signed printout of the email in question was also sent through the registered post to Chief Justice Frank Clarke on October 4th 2021 and a scanned copy of it can be viewed at:
http://www.humanrightsireland.com/ChiefJusticeFrankClarke/4October2021-RL/RegisteredLetter.htm

From my viewpoint there are also a number of other important parts to the overall set of difficulties I now need to deal with, apart from the eviction threat, and the fact that I have never received any proper medical treatment for the Complex-Post Traumatic Stress Disorder I continue to suffer from. Assuming you have the time and the inclination to familiarise yourself with the information at the www location immediately above, my hope is it will enable you to better understand why I feel I need to deal with the overall set of problems in question in a holistic way, and why I also feel I can only do so with the help of professional legal advice and representation of the kind which recognises and supports human rights law in meaningful and practical ways.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.
