Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you for your letter dated July 17th 2020 acknowledging receipt of the email I copied to you on June 27th 2020.

I have placed a scanned of your July 17th 2020 letter at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/AppealsServiceNorthernIreland/17July2020/Letter.htm>

A slightly edited version of the June 17th 2020 email (addressed primarily to Radius Housing) I copied to you, referred to at the www location just above, can be viewed at:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/RadiusHousing/17June2020/Gmail.html>

Since sending the email I copied to you on June 17th 2020, I have spent a period of six days in the Royal Victoria Hospital (Belfast). Additional information relating to my recent stay there can be found in my July 20th email to Dr Cheyne GP, a scanned copy of which can be viewed at:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/DrDavidCheyneGP/20July2020/Email.htm>

in my letter to Dr Cheyne GP dated July 22nd, a scanned copy of which can be viewed at:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/DrDavidCheyneGP/22July2020/Email.htm>

I have also placed a scanned copy of the "Discharge Note" letter to Dr Holly Dunlop GP, which was handed to me immediately before I was discharged from the Royal Victoria Hospital on July 13th 2020, at:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/RoyalVictoriaHospitalBelfast/13July2020-DischargeNote.htm>

Although "PTSD" (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder) is mentioned in the "Discharge Note" at the www location immediately above, please know that I did not receive any treatment for the C-PTSD (Complex-Post Traumatic Stress Disorder) I am suffering from while in hospital. I did discuss my C-PTSD condition with a number of doctors and nurses during my stay in hospital, and they all seemed to feel I should seek help from Social Services regarding my C-PTSD problem (and its causes).

Shortly after leaving hospital I did ask Dr David Cheyne GP if he could arrange for me to start seeing a psychiatric social worker, as can be observed in the text of the two items of correspondence of mine to Dr Cheyne GP (dated July 20th and July 22nd) provided at the two www locations above.

I have recently been visited by two Community Psychiatric Nurses, and it is my understanding that they will be making arrangements for me to be introduced to a suitably experienced social worker within the coming 10 days or so.

In addition, Dr David Cheyne GP has kindly provided me with a "To Whom It May Concern Letter" (dated July 27th 2020), a scanned copy of which can be viewed at:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/DrDavidCheyneGP/27July2020-TWIMC/Letter.htm>

For the purpose of trying to point out that my difficulty with finding proper professional legal advice and representation dates back many years -- and that this difficulty is still very much an ongoing and very worrying source of concern for me -- I am attaching a copy of a "To Whom It May Concern Letter" written by Dr Michael McCavert GP (a former GP of mine) dated October 28th 2005.

Provided you consider it appropriate, it would be much appreciated if you could please ensure that all parties to the proceedings connected with the two separate appeals I have made to your office regarding the cancellations of (a) my "Pensions Credit" payments, and (b) my "Housing Benefit" payments, will be provided with copies of this email.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.
