Dear Karen,

As you may know, a woman named Lee telephoned me this morning in connection with an appointment (for me) for prostate surgery at Belfast City Hospital, which I understand has been set for four days from now.

On account of unresolved legal and financial problems of mine, which are ongoing -- and possibly never ending as things stand -- due to the fact I still do not have any direct access to professional legal advice and representation, I feel I cannot sensibly present myself for surgery at the present time.

Part of my set of legal problems and financial problems relate to the fact that my tenancy for the flat I am at present living in has recently been terminated by Radius Housing Association. For further information relating to this please see the scanned copy of a letter dated May 18th 2021 from Babingtons Solicitors (who are acting on behalf of Radius Housing Association) at the following www location:

Additional, and more up-to-date information relating to the overall set of legal and financial problems of mine (referred to above) can be viewed in the two emails at the following two www locations:

- 1) Email to Extern Homes Social Worker Anna O'Kane dated June 5th 2021:

2) Email to Belfast Trust Social Worker Tina Millar dated June 7th 2021:

Kind regards,
William Finnerty
