Dear Ms O'Brien,

RE: Urgent Correspondence - High Court Record No. 2019/8260P

Thank you for your email dated November 10th 2020, a copy of which is reproduced below.

Please know that, allowing for the letter I sent through the registered post to your colleague Mr Cian Clinch (Lawyer) on August 29th 2019, I am a little surprised by the fact that I have suddenly, and for no good reason that I know of or can think of, been contacted again -- well over one year later -- by Hayes Solicitors in connection with the FACEBOOK concerns relating to your client Mr Connor MacGuill (Lawyer).

A scanned copy of my August 29th 2019 registered letter to Mr Cian Clinch, together with scanned copies of the associated Royal Mail receipt, and the associated Royal Mail "Proof of Delivery" note, can be viewed at the following www location:
<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/HayesSolicitorsDublin/29August2019/RegisteredLetter.htm>

As I have never received any acknowledgement of receipt from Mr Clinch, or from anybody else connected with Hayes Solicitors, for the registered letter referred to at the www location immediately above, it would be much appreciated if you (or Mr Clinch preferably) could please provide me with written confirmation that my August 29th 2019 letter to Mr Clinch has in fact been received by him.

I feel I should also point out that shortly after receiving your November 10th 2020 email, I tried to contact Belfast Social Worker Tina Millar regarding it. Since last August, and at the request of Dr David Cheyne (my GP), Ms Millar has been trying to help me to resolve a number of problems I am experiencing difficulty with at the present time (and a few of which are very long-standing problems of mine).

Unfortunately, Ms Millar was not available last week. I understand that she was away on a training course and I do not know when she will be back.

Nevertheless, Belfast Community Psychiatric Nurse Ms Briana Bloomer, who I understand is a member of the same team as Ms Millar, kindly offered to help me in the absence of Ms Millar. I further understand, from what Ms Bloomer has herself told me, that, with little or no success so far apparently, she (Ms Bloomer) has spent a very considerable amount of time and effort, over a period of three days or so last week, seeking help on my behalf from the Belfast Law Centre, regarding the matter of how best I might deal with the contents of your November 10th 2020 email to me: having due regard for the fact that I still do not have any access to professional legal advice or representation.

Some more information relating to my ongoing difficulties with finding proper professional legal advice and representation -- a continuous difficulty I have been having for the past 20 years or so -- can be found via the listing at the Google www address immediately below.

Additional information relating to the reasons I have been receiving help from Social Worker Tina Millar, and from Community Psychiatric Nurse Briana Bloomer (since August 7th 2020), can be found in the September 22nd 2020 email of mine to the Northern Ireland Appeals Service at:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/AppealsServiceNorthernIreland/22September2020/Gmail.pdf>

I look forward to hearing from you (or Mr Clinch preferably) regarding the above request of mine for an acknowledgement of receipt for the registered letter I sent to Mr Clinch on August 29th 2019.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.
