"His efforts to secure proper legal representation have been thwarted at every turn":

"Mr Finnerty is keen to return to the Republic Of Ireland and resume his former lifestyle. Crucial however to this, is the matter of the extant warrant for his arrest and in particular the issue of securing adequate time for his defence. His efforts to secure proper legal representation have been thwarted at every turn and Mr Finnerty is firmly of the belief that this situation is a serious breach of his rights under Article 6 (3) (1.b.c.) of the European Convention of Human Rights. It is however of equal importance to quote Mr Finnerty's words in his e-mail of 21 October 2005. "the huge fear in me of appearing in court has nothing whatsoever to do with contempt for the law, or with contempt for the courts: instead, it is entirely a function of contempt for corruption". In your capacity as Minister For Justice I am sure you would wholeheartedly welcome and endorse Mr Finnerty's sentiments.'

Dear Minister: Minister

RE: MR WILLIAM FLEMING
MR FLEMING
1400 BARRINGTON ST "ALBANY" NEW YORK, N.Y. 10019
USA

I am writing to you in regard to the above named gentleman who is a citizen of the Republic of Ireland, though temporarily resident in Northern Ireland for the past year. The background details of this case I understand to have been made to your Department's attention by the Royal Ulster Constabulary on or about 1 December 2005. I have also find enclosed a report from the CPJ outlining in the strongest possible terms certain allegations Mr Fleming's name and being, the nature of which I would be delighted to assist and support.

Mr Fleming is born in 1938 in the Republic of Ireland and claims his former identity. It was his intention to file in the possession of the matter of an arrest warrant for his arrest and to participate in the trial of several defendants then in the Republic. His efforts to secure justice from the authorities have been frustrated in a very serious manner. Fleming is a friend of the author of this situation is a serious breach of his human rights under Article 1 of the European Convention on Human Rights. It is because of equal importance it is also Mr Fleming's words in an email of 21 October 2007. His language is one of disrespect for your law-making authorities in its most serious form for the law, or even contempt for the same, intended, is a contempt of the court.
