Dear Mr Glynn,

RE: SECURING OF MONEY LOANS, AND NON-ATTENDANCE AT COURT HEARING

As I believe you already know, my U.K. (Northern Ireland) Pension and Housing Benefit payments were both cancelled last year in connection with the fact, as I understand it, that Patrick Hogan & Co refused to legally secure the money loans provided for me by my brother (Mr Gerald Finnerty) and my half-sister (Ms Marjorie Dolan), which I arranged for with them in 2007, against my home in New Inn (County Galway, Republic of Ireland). Evidence of this refusal by Patrick Hogan & Co to legally secure these loans against my home in New Inn can be viewed in the "To Whom It May Concern Letter", dated December 25th 2019, signed by my brother and my half-sister. A copy of the December 25th 2019 "To Whom It May Concern Letter" was attached to my June 17th 2020 email to Radius Housing, and copies of both can be viewed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/RadiusHousing/17June2020/Gmail.html>

In connection with appeals I have lodged with the Northern Ireland Appeals Service relating to the two above-mentioned social benefit cancellations, and the two directly associated appeal hearings which I anticipate will be held at a later date, it would be much appreciated if you could please provide me with a written statement regarding the matter of why Patrick Hogan & Co refused to legally secure the loans against my home in New Inn in 2007. Additional information relating to the pension appeal I have lodged, and the associated pension appeal hearing, can be found in the copy of my September 22nd 2020 email to the Northern Ireland Appeals Service at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/AppealsServiceNorthernIreland/22September2020/Gmail.html>

In addition, and also in connection with the two above-mentioned Northern Ireland Appeals Service appeals, it would be much appreciated if you could please provide me with a written explanation as to why you did not, as I understand it, attend the Loughrea (County Galway, Republic of Ireland) District Court hearing on July 8th 2015. Further information relating to this matter can be found in the copy of my July 9th 2015 email to Lough District Court at:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/LoughreaDistrictCourt/9July2015/Email.htm>

Finally, I wish you to know that I have recently received a written statement from my half-sister informing me that she and my brother have no objection to I writing to you regarding the above two matters relating to a) the way that Patrick Hogan & Co refused to legally secure the loans against my home around the time the loans began in 2007; and, b) the fact that you failed, without any reasonable explanation to date (that I know of), to appear on behalf of myself, my brother, and my half-sister at the Loughrea District Court hearing on July 8th 2015.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.
