Dear Minister for Justice McEntee,

RE: REGISTERED LETTER OF MINE DATED JANUARY 21ST 2022 TO AN GARDA SIOCHANA (REPUBLIC OF IRELAND POLICE FORCE) CHIEF COMMISSIONER MR DREW HARRIS

1) Thank you for the acknowledgement of receipt I have received for the copy of the email I sent to An Garda Siochana Chief Police Commissioner Mr Drew Harris on January 21st 2022, which I sent to your email address. A copy of your acknowledgement of receipt, dated January 25th 2022, has been placed at the following www location:

<https://www.humanrightsireland.com/RepublicOfIrelandJusticeMinisterHelenMcEnteeTD/25January2022/Gmail.pdf>

Please know that I sent a signed printout of my January 21st 2022 email to Chief Police Commissioner Drew Harris, also on January 21st 2022, which included my postal address in Belfast, in the form of a handwritten addition at the bottom of Page 5 of the signed email printout at the www location immediately below. To date, I have not received any reply of any kind from Mr Harris, or from any of his support staff. For a number of reasons, I am growing extremely concerned regarding this fact.

A scanned copy of the my January 21st 2022 registered letter to Chief Police Commissioner Harris, together with scanned copies of the the associated Royal Mail receipt, and of the Royal mail "Proof of Delivery" note, can be viewed at:

<https://www.humanrightsireland.com/GardaCommissionerDrewHarris/21January2022/RegisteredLetter.htm>

According to the Royal Mail postal service, my January 21st 2022 registered letter to Chief Police Commissioner Harris was successfully delivered on "24-01-2022".

2) In the meantime I have received an email, dated February 22nd 2022, from Dublin law firm Hayes Solicitors. A copy of their email has been placed at:

<https://www.humanrightsireland.com/HayesSolicitorsDublin/22February2022/Gmail.pdf>

Parts of the text of the letter attached to the February 22nd 2022 email referred to immediately above, which is also dated February 22nd 2022, relate to a "notice of motion and affidavit", which read as follows:

"The motion was initially listed for 11 October 2021. However, it was adjourned on that date and it is next listed before the Court on 14 March 2022."

"In the motion, our client is asking the Court to, amongst other things, enter judgment against you for failing to file an Appearance to the proceedings".

"If you do not file, or arrange to file, an Appearance in advance of that date, we believe that the Court is likely to grant judgment against you on that date."

Please know that I feel I cannot sensibly set out -- from the Northern Ireland jurisdiction-- to attend the Dublin High Court hearing in the Republic of Ireland jurisdiction on March 14th 2022, on account of the fact that I have reason to believe that there might be an extant warrant for my arrest in the Republic of Ireland. This is one of the main reasons I have asked Chief Police Commissioner Mr Drew Harris, in my January 21st 2022 registered letter to him, to provide me with written confirmation, as to whether or not, there is an extant warrant for my arrest in the Republic of Ireland at the present time.

Also, and in a more general way, it continues to be the case that despite my best efforts during the past 20 years or so, I still do not have any direct access to professional legal advice and representation of the kind which recognises and supports human rights law and constitutional law in practical, meaningful, and holistic ways. Consequently, at the present time, I still feel entirely unable to deal properly with the Dublin High Court hearing scheduled for March 14th 2022: because, as already stated, a) of doubts in my mind regarding the possible existence of an extant warrant for my arrest in the Republic of Ireland, and b) because I still do not have any direct access to proper legal advice and representation.

Additional information relating to this Hayes Solicitors matter, which includes reference to a letter I sent through the registered post on October 4th 2021 to Republic of Ireland Chief Justice Frank Clarke, can be viewed in Section 9 of my January 21st 2022 registered letter to Chief Police Commissioner Harris (referred to in Section 1 above). To date, I have not received any reply of any kind from Chief Justice Clarke, or from any of his support staff, to the registered letter I sent to him on October 4th 2021. As can be seen at the www address immediately below, the letter in question was successfully delivered on "06-10-2021":

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/ChiefJusticeFrankClarke/4October2021-RL/RegisteredLetter.htm>

3) In connection with PTSD and C-PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and Complex Post Traumatic Stress) symptoms I suffer from, which I am not receiving any medical treatment for, I have received an appointment, via my GP (Dr Holly Dunlop), with Belfast Health and Social Care Trust Consultant Psychiatrist Dr Janet Corry. I have written to Dr Corry requesting her to reschedule the appointment for February 16th 2022, until after I have received a reply from Chief Police Commissioner Harris to the registered letter I sent to him on January 21st 2022. A copy of my February 14th 2022 registered letter to Dr Corry can be viewed at:

<https://www.humanrightsireland.com/ConsultantPsychiatristDrJanetCorry/14February2022/RegisteredLetter.htm>

While Dr Corry has agreed to reschedule my original appointment with her for February 16th 2022, she has also pointed out that if I am not in a position to attend the next appointment I am offered, that I will likely "be discharged back to the care of" my GP. A scanned copy of the letter containing this information, which I received from Dr Corry on February 22nd 2020, can be viewed at:

<https://www.humanrightsireland.com/ConsultantPsychiatristDrJanetCorry/14February2022/RegisteredLetter.htm#DrCorryReply>

4) I would greatly appreciate any help you might be able to provide me with in connection with the unresolved difficulties of mine referred to above. Please know that I am particularly interested in receiving a written reply from Chief Police Commissioner Harris, or from one of his senior Garda colleagues, to the registered letter I sent to him on January 21st 2022: mainly for the purpose of informing me, as to whether or not, there is an extant warrant for my arrest in the Republic of Ireland at the present time.

In connection with this matter I feel I should point out that a number of weeks ago I happened to come across some texts on the Internet relating to "Tort Law", and to the closely associated "Duty of Care" principle. Two of the texts in question, which I feel might be very relevant to my case, are reproduced immediately below.

Text 1 of 2: "TORT LAW"

"A tort, in common law jurisdiction, is a civil wrong[1] (other than breach of contract) that causes a claimant to suffer loss or harm, resulting in legal liability for the person who commits the tortious act. It can include intentional infliction of emotional distress, negligence, financial loss, injury, invasion of privacy, and numerous other harms."

From: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tort>

Text 2 of 2: "DUTY OF CARE"

"The duty of care arises in the tort of negligence, a relatively recently emerged tort. The general principal is that you should not harm those people to whom you owe a duty of care by your acts of omissions (such as, for example, the apparent decision made by Chief Police Commissioner Drew Harris to NOT acknowledge receipt of my January 21st 2022 registered letter to him). If you fail in the standard of care owed, you will be liable for your acts or omissions due to negligence."
