Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: APPEAL TRIBUNAL HEARING

Thank you for your letter dated August 19th 2020.

Attached please find a completed copy of the Reply Form (i.e. Page 4 of your August 19th 2020 letter to me).

Please know that during recent weeks I have been receiving help from Social Worker Ms Tina Millar, and Community Psychiatric Nurse Ms Briana Bloomer, who are both based at Graham House, Knockbracken Healthcare Park, Saintfield Road, Belfast, BT8 8BH.

Our most recent meeting took place last Friday, during which Ms Miller strongly suggested to me that I should seek help from the Belfast Law Centre.

Although I have sought help from the Belfast Law Centre some years ago, and it seemed to me that they would not be able to help me, I nevertheless decided to go along with Ms Millar's suggestion of last Friday that I try again; and, this was mostly because I believe it might make a significant difference if a) Ms Millar arranged the suggested meeting with the Belfast Law Centre on my behalf, and b) if she attended the meeting with me: which she agreed to do. It is my understanding that Ms Millar will later on be advising me regarding the time and venue of the suggested meeting.

Evidence of my earlier failed attempt to get help from the Belfast Law Centre can be found in the email dated September 22nd 2017, which was titled "Request for a written response", at the following www location:
<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/TheNorthernIrelandLawCentre/22September2017/Gmail.pdf>

Please know that I have never received any reply from the Belfast Law Centre to the email at the www address just above.

Assuming that Ms Millar's request for the meeting referred to above with the Belfast Law Centre is granted, it seems likely to me that I will be submitting further information relating to the Law Centre meeting for consideration by the tribunal. It is for this reason that I am unable, at the present time, to answer either of the two questions in the "Further Evidence" section of the attached file (named "Northern-Ireland-Appeals-Service-Reply-Form-22Sept2020.jpg").

Finally, I would like to point out that I sent an email to you on August 7th 2020, and that I do not know if you have received it or not. In case that for some reason you have not received it, please know that a copy of it can be viewed at:
<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/AppealsServiceNorthernIreland/7August2020/Gmail.pdf>

It would be much appreciated if you could provide me with a written acknowledgement of receipt for this email please.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.
